

THE WHEELING ACADEMY OF LAW & SCIENCE FOUNDATION PRESENTS

The Reuther Pollack Labor History

Symposium

Selfishness vs Empathy: the Battle for the Soul of Capitalism Saturday, September 2, 2017

10:00-10:50 Registration

10:50-11:00 Welcome and Introductory Remarks

11:00-12:00 Augustus Pollack, Valentine Reuther and the Ohio Valley Trades & Labor Assembly, 1882 to 1915: The Golden Age of Wheeling Unionism with Dr. David Javersak

12:00-1:00 "Those so-called Hunkeys are the cleanest union men:" Immigrants Battle the Open Shop in Wheeling, 1918-1924 with Dr. Hal Gorby

1:00—2:00 Lunch Break and Walking Tour to Reuther and Pollack Monuments

2:00—3:00 Capital Mobility, Rural-Industrial Workers, and the Search for Stability in Hancock County with Dr. Lou Martin

2:00—4:00 Americanism and Selling Free Enterprise in Post-War West Virginia with Dr. Elizabeth Fones-Wolf

4:00—5:00 The Mine Guard System: Mine Wars, Labor, and the Politics of Memory in West Virginia with Dr. Charles Keeney

Suggested Donation: $20 | Students $10

Proceeds benefit WALS educational programming.

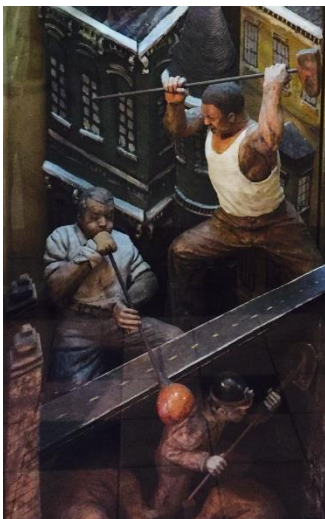

To RSVP or for more information, contact: the WALS Foundation

The First State Capitol, 1413 Eoff Street, Wheeling, WV 26003

walswheeling.com | 304-232-8100 | spd@walslaw.com

SPACE LIMITED – EARLY REGISTRATION RECOMMENDED

In partnership with Wheeling Heritage

And on Thursday, September 7 at 7, WALS presents: What Is a Jobs First Agenda? Exploring a New Narrative and the Legal Framework to Effectuate It

What happened to empathy and fairness in America's legal/economic narrative? Does government have a role in ensuring social justice? How can we amend the U.S. Constitution and revise state laws to reintroduce fairness and empathy into employment relationships?

(Note to attorneys: CLE credit available.)